Love & Death: My Journey through the Valley of the Shadow

By Rev. Forrest Church

An audio version of the book is also available, recorded in its entirety by Forrest Church himself.

Book: ~~$22.00~~ $19.80 <http://www.beacon.org/productdetails.cfm?PC=2030>

Audio: ~~$29.95~~ $26.96 <http://www.beacon.org/productdetails.cfm?PC=2032>

An intimate and compelling work from the beloved minister of All Souls Unitarian Universalist Church in New York City.

“Forrest Church has given us many gifts of illumination over the years, often using his own life experiences to disclose insights into the nature of faith and hope, but now in Love & Death he has given us the ultimate gift: a treatise on life’s meaning revealed in the face of his own impending death. The book is consummate with the man: witty, eloquent, gracious, with not a touch of the maudlin. Once again, Forrest teaches us how most passionately to live.”—Rev. William F. Schulz, President of the UUA 1985 – 1993,

Saving Paradise: How Christianity Traded Love of This World for Crucifixion and Empire

By Rev. Rita Nakashima Brock and Rev. Rebecca Ann Parker

~~$34.95~~ $31.46 <http://www.beacon.org/productdetails.cfm?PC=1972>

“As a work of Christian historical theology, this is one of the most important books of the current generation . . . The prose here is sparkling. The research is thorough and well-documented. The thesis is challenging . . . They give us hope through their active nostalgia for a once dominant form of Christian thought and practice that we desperately need to recover today.”—Rev. John A. Buehrens, President of the UUA 1993 – 2001.

Co-authored by Rev. Dr. Rebecca Parker, President of the Unitarian Universalist Starr King School for the Ministry, Saving Paradise was picked as one of the Best Books of the Year by Publishers Weekly.

The Truro Bear and Other Adventures: Poems and Essays

By Mary Oliver

~~$23.00~~ $20.70 <http://www.beacon.org/productdetails.cfm?PC=2004>

A collection of new poems and beloved classics about creatures of all sorts; a companion volume to Owls and Other Fantasies and Blue Iris. The award-winning poet considers beasts of all kinds: bears, snakes, spiders, porcupines, humpback whales, hermit crabs, and, of course, her little dog, Percy; much loved by dedicated fans, he appears and even speaks in thirteen poems, the closing section of the volume.
